Ice Skating Origins

According to a new study, ice-skating, one of the oldest 1.of transport, was invented in Finland about 5,000 years 2. However, the ancient Scandinavians who invented ice skates 3.interested in leisure, but in survival.

Southern Finland has more lakes within 100 square kilometers than any other region 4.the world. These lakes 5.during the long winters, when there are only a few hours of sunlight per day. Ice skating was developed in this area because people 6.to cross these lakes and wanted to travel more quickly while using much 7.energy on their daily journeys.

The earliest skates were made mostly of horse bones, 8.other bones were also used depending on the animals available. 9.skates are found throughout Finland, including some that date back to 3000 BC.

The earliest skaters were probably very slow. The people testing the bone skates for the study reached an average 10.of about eight kilometers an hour. Modern speed skaters, on the other hand, are able to go up to 60 kilometers an hour.

Dear Laura,

I've found a place to live, in a house near the university. There are five of us living there, each with our own bedroom. My room isn't very big, but there's a huge kitchen, and a living room with satellite TV.

The room didn't have much furniture when I moved in – just a bed, an armchair and a cupboard – and it's got a green carpet and purple curtains! Last Saturday I walked down to the shops to get some food, and I saw a lovely old desk in a charity shop for only £50. So now I've got a desk in my room with my computer and printer on it. Unfortunately, the house has only got one phone line (in the kitchen) so I'm still using the university computers for e-mail.

On Sunday, Mum and Dad came to visit, and brought me some cushions, a couple of lamps, some bookshelves (the white ones from your room) and my sound system. They thought the place was great. Mum wanted to spend the afternoon cleaning the kitchen, but we took her out for lunch instead!

I really like the other people in the house. Jim and Pete are studying French, like me. Mike is a music student, and Fred works in a bookshop – he left the university last summer. They're really friendly, and two of them are really good cooks.

Hope you and Charlie are well. And how are the children? I want to see both of them very soon. Why don't you all come and visit me next weekend?

Love, Bob
